

Award in Basic Health & Safety for Construction Workers (5 ECTS)

Learning Outcomes

The learner will be able to:

- a) Deal with basic health and safety requirements and management skills practiced at the construction industry
- b) Comply with the health and safety legislation and other emerging rules and regulations governing the construction industry at the workplace within the industry.
- c) Plan for and create effective measurements to ensure effective prioritisation for the workers in relationship to construction works.
- d) Create effective health and safety reports outlining tasks and requirements within construction workplace.
- e) Gain communication techniques required for ensure health and safe work environment within construction industry.